Kathy Ross Summer Reading/CSLP Workshop

Craft book author Kathy Ross has created a great hands-on workshop around this year's Collaborative Summer Library Program (CSLP) theme: "Paws, Claws, Scales and Tales!" Join us for two hours of hands-on fun, plus a sharing session.

For more information call Melora Norman at 287-5653 or 1-800-762-7106

Maine's participation in the CSLP summer reading initiative and this workshop are funded by LSTA, a program of the federal government. Maine's statewide summer reading initiative is coordinated by Maine State Library Outreach Services.

*You CAN get there from here . . .
@ your library™*

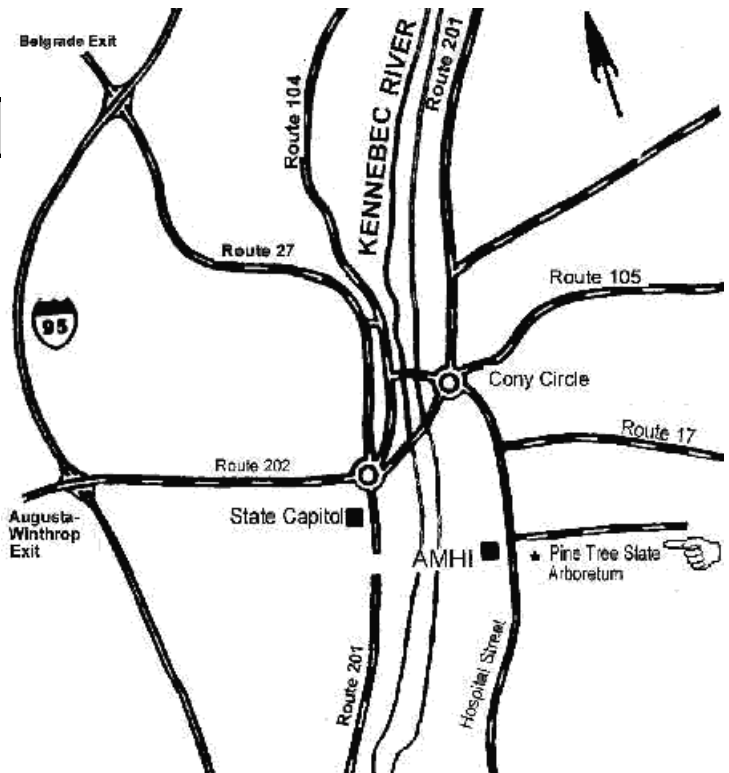

Directions to Pine Tree State Arboretum:

From the North: From the Maine Turnpike, take exit 113; cross Augusta's new "Third Bridge"; continue to Route 201 and head south to Hospital Street in Augusta.

From the South: From the Maine Turnpike, take exit # 51; follow 126 into Gardiner; cross the Gardiner-Randolph Bridge; turn left and follow Route 27, which becomes Hospital Street.

(Note: the Memorial Bridge in Augusta is closed for repairs—please plan to take one of the alternate routes!)
